Plowman's Academy
575 US Highway 250
Greenwich, OH 44837

Plowman's Academy was started to provide the opportunity for teens and adults to study God's word more deeply, imitate Jesus more closely, and be more sensitive and obedient to God's Holy Spirit—all through the means of correspondence (communication by letters or mail) courses. Jesus taught us that when we set out to follow Him, we ought to do so with no regrets, no second thoughts, and no turning back. We welcome you to join us as we aim to turn from sin, surrender to God, seek Him until He rains righteousness upon us, and then follow Him faithfully and fully forever. Let us look always to Jesus and live always for eternity, for Jesus Christ is our wisdom, righteousness, sanctification, and redemption.

Thank you for joining us. An academy is a place of study or training in a specific subject or skill. At Plowman's Academy, the subject is Jesus. Put your hand to the plow and do not look back.

And Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

Luke 9:62

Giving Credit and Appreciation to Ray Witmer

Ray Witmer, author of this Bible study curriculum, has given us permission to use his studies taken from the Word of God.

We are very grateful and appreciate Brother Ray's heart for God and his willingness to let us use his resources to spread God's Word among this generation of people.

Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the Lord, till he come and rain righteousness upon you.

* INSTRUCTION SHEET FOR BIBLE LESSONS *******

- A. The Bible verses used in this study are taken from the King James Version of the Bible, translated out of the original tongues with the former translation diligently compared and revised.
- B. Before doing each lesson, take time to ask God to open your understanding and show you the truth.
- C. For the best results, do only one lesson each day (There are four weeks of lessons per book).
- D. Keep in mind that these lessons are based on what the Bible says and not on man's opinion.
- E. These lessons are designed to help you to know the truth, to know the Lord in a personal way, and to trust what the Bible says and teaches you.
- F. Remember, it is not what you, I, or any preacher says, but what the Bible says.
- G. You must learn to stand on what the Bible says to “study to show yourself approved unto God, workman that needed not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth” (II Timothy 2:15).
- H. Who wrote the Bible? (II Peter 1:21)
- I. All Scripture is inspired by God (II Timothy 3:16).
- J. Regardless of what man says, the believer (Christian) has direct access to the throne of God and is responsible directly to God. This access is through Jesus Christ and Him only (I Timothy 2:5).
- K. These studies are to help you have peace of mind (Isaiah 26:3-4).
- L. These studies will help you know if you are going to Heaven or Hell (Romans 10:13).
- M. These lessons will help you with assurance and security; these are not the same. The securing of the believer is God's work; It is a part of God's great work of Salvation depending solely upon His infinite grace. Assurance is the believer's acceptance of the security provided for him in Christ; It is the result of the human soul resting in what God has promised in His Word to accomplish. This is why it is important to know what the Bible says (I John 5:11-13).

TAKE TIME TO READ BELOW BEFORE
DOING THIS LESSON

Meditate on the Scriptures of this Lesson and Ask Yourself These Questions:

1. What do these verses teach me about God and myself?
2. Is there an example here to follow or avoid?
3. Is there a command, a promise, or a warning that I need to apply?
4. What action do I need to take to align my life with this truth?

Lesson #7

We know that the Hebrew word, "Sabbath," means rest, from the statement in Genesis 2:2 that says God rested on the seventh day. After the ascension of Jesus, the disciples met on the first day of each week.

The Bible says: And upon the first day of the _____, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul _____ unto them (Acts 20:7).

NOTICE: It was the first day of the week. Also, the Bible says that they came together.

The Bible says: Praise ye the _____. I will praise the Lord with my _____, in the _____ (saints) of the _____, and in the congregation (church) (Psalm 111:1).

The Bible says: For where _____ or _____ are gathered together in _____ (Jesus') name, there _____ in the midst of them (Matthew 18:20).

Note: The Bible says, "gathered together."

The Bible says: That we should stand fast in one _____, with one mind striving _____ for the _____ of the gospel (Philippians 1:27).

Note: Again, the Bible says that we should stand together.

The Bible says: Wherefore comfort (encourage) yourselves _____, and edify (build up) one _____, even as also ye do (I Thessalonians 5:11).

The Bible says: Not _____ the assembling of _____ together, as the manner of some is; and so much the more, as you see the day _____ (the coming of the Lord) (Hebrews 10:25).

The Bible says: And on the seventh day God ended His work which He had made; and He _____ on the seventh day from all His work which He had made, and God blessed the _____ and sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made (Genesis 2:2-3).

The Bible says: Remember the _____ day, to keep it holy (Exodus 20:8).

The Bible says: Therefore to _____ that knoweth to do good, and _____ it _____, to him it is _____ (James 4:17).

Today's Bible reading is I John 1:9:

If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

DOUBT COMES TO A NEW CHRISTIAN
“Foundational Study”
Book #1

Lesson #8

How should the new Christian deal with doubt?

This question often surfaces during times of tragedy when, for an instant, it may seem to you that God is not present. The Bible, however, tells you that God is always with you, in every circumstance, through all moments of your life. He promises in His word that He will never leave or forsake you (Hebrews 13:5).

As humans, the concept of someone who is incapable of disappointing us is hard to grasp. Our wandering minds often give way to veins of doubt — doubt that God cannot provide for us and meet our needs, and will never leave nor forsake us.

When feelings such as these seek to break your confidence in God, you must take action. Your best defense is His Word — the Bible.

The Bible is your reassurance and your guide to the undeniable truth of God's love for you and His desire to know you intimately. If you are not easily receiving encouragement from your Bible reading, consider inviting a friend to become a Bible study partner with you. This decision will increase your knowledge in a spirit of fellowship. Be sure to select a person who is a Christian capable of helping you to study God's word and not man's ideas. These lessons will help both of you as you read the Bible and pray together. Your knowledge will increase, and thoughts of doubt will decrease.

Jesus Is Always A Good Example For Us To Live By.

The Bible says that Jesus had fasted forty days and forty nights and was hungry. The tempter (Satan) came to Jesus; he said, “If thou be the son of God, command these stones be made bread.”

Look what Jesus said: It is _____, man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the _____ (Matthew 4:4).

When tempted again, Jesus said: It is _____ again, Thou shalt _____ the Lord your God (Matthew 4:7).

When tempted a third time, Jesus said: Get thee _____, Satan: for it is _____ Thou shalt _____ the Lord thy God, and _____ him shalt thou serve (Matthew 4:10).

Each time Jesus said, “It is written,” he was speaking right from the Bible.

Then the _____ leaveth Him, and, behold, angels came and _____ unto Him (Matthew 4:11).

Today's Bible reading is Proverbs 3:5-6.

PRIVILEGE: ACCESS TO GOD BY PRAYER (Part I)

“Foundational Study”

Book #1

Lesson #11

Nowhere does the Bible say that prayer is easy. It can be a struggle, and there will be times when Satan will attack you as you are on your knees, harassing you with doubt and sending distracting thoughts into your mind. One of Satan's most effective weapons is causing you to feel worthless before God; this does not refer to proper humility, but to an unhealthy feeling that God cannot even look at you.

Again, Jesus Is A Good Example In How He Prayed.

And when He (Jesus) had sent the multitudes away, He went up into a mountain _____ : and when the evening was come, He was _____ (Matthew 14:23).

And in the morning, rising up a great while _____ He (Jesus) went out, and departed into a _____ (deserted) place, and _____ (Mark 1:35).

And He (Jesus) _____ into the wilderness, and _____ (Luke 5:16).

And He (Jesus) went a little farther, and _____ on his _____ and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be _____, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless _____, but as thou wilt (Matthew 26:39).

But thou, when thou prayest, enter into _____, and when thou _____, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret _____ (Matthew 6:6).

Now, Take Time To Read Matthew, Chapter 7.

In Matthew 7:7-11, Jesus emphasizes an important lesson on prayer. Dispelling the assumption that prayer simply comes naturally to Christians, Jesus asserts that prayer is an intentional, learned activity for God's children. In this passage, He is quite simply showing the disciples the three basic steps for an effective prayer life: ASK, SEEK, and KNOCK.

Unfortunately, well-meaning Christians can miss fantastic opportunities and blessings in life because they have taken a completely passive role in their prayer lives. Too often, SEEKING and KNOCKING are overlooked as the believer sits back and merely ASKS God for something once or twice and then forgets all about the matter.

Stop And Ask God To Teach You To Pray As Jesus' Disciples Did in Luke 11:1.

Today's Bible Reading is Matthew, Chapter 6.

When you pray, you should not be like whom? _____

Where should you go to pray? _____

_____ (Hebrews 4:16).

Every request, every desire of our hearts, and every need should begin with prayer where we ask God for permission, seeking to know His will. Because He has now become our life, we have the right and the authority to come to Him and make a request.

Prayer is not only asking and receiving, but also giving thanks, adoring, and praising the Lord God. There are two responsibilities in prayer: God's responsibility and our responsibility. You cannot have one without the other; prayer is both human and divine.

When we talk to God, we are building and nourishing our relationship with Him. We are getting to know Him — who He is and how He operates. Once you have become one of his children, do you realize that God wants to give Himself above everything else? He wants you to know Him.

One of the primary reasons we do not pray is that we are not willing for God to take His scalpel and open us up all the way down to our innermost beings, and there deal with things that we have never overcome.

When you go to the Lord, do not be meek and embarrassed; instead, bow before Him and rejoice. Explain, “Lord Jesus, I praise Your name that You are my life. I thank You that I can come to you in confidence because You have told me to ask, seek, and knock; and Lord, I'm coming. I'm coming as your child, confident that You are listening to what I am saying, confident that you will give me direction for my life.”

HOW TO RESPOND TO TRIALS AND TROUBLES (Part I)
“Foundational Study”
Book #1

Lesson #18

My brethren, count it all joy when ye _____ into diverse (various) temptations (trials): knowing this, that the trying of your _____ worketh (produces) _____. But let patience have her perfect work, that you may be perfect and entire (complete) wanting _____ (James 1:2-4).

One of life's most commonly asked question is, "“Why does God allow His children to go through difficult, trying, and painful times in life?” We recognize that God is all-powerful and could prevent these trials if He chose to do so; yet, He often does not. Therefore, there must be some purpose for them—some divine reason for not sparing these hardships. Once you begin to understand God's purpose for these things, you will be able to stand strong through any storm of life.

Now, take time to read James 1:1-12. These verses issue a serious challenge to every believer. The first thing we should notice is the Holy Spirit’s assurance in verse two that all Christians will in fact face trials of many kinds. The Holy Spirit leaves no room for doubt. He alludes to these “various trials,” which indicates the inevitability of such ordeals. Therefore, you should not ask how you can avoid trials (because you cannot), but rather, you should ask God to show you how to deal with them when they appear.

The second thing we should notice in verse two is the seemingly strange instruction to “count it all joy” whenever hardships assault our lives. This is a strange statement. Trials and joy simply do not go together. Tears, discouragement, disillusionment, and despair — these are the things that we associate with trials—but joy? The Holy Spirit must have known that this would be a contradiction to our natural human reasoning; so, there must be an answer beyond what we perceive.

Wherein you greatly rejoice, though now for a _____, if need be you are in heaviness (distressed) through manifold temptations; That the trial of your _____, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, through it be tried (tested) with fire, might be found unto _____ and honor and glory at the appearing of _____ (I Peter 1:6-7).

Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that _____ may be able to comfort them which are in _____, by the comfort wherewith we ourselves are _____ (II Corinthians 1:4).

Trials equip you for service in the kingdom of God for the sake of others.

Use The Following Verses To Help You Through Your Trials:

Psalm 46:1-2, Psalm 84:11-12, Psalm 37:3-5, Proverbs 3:5-6, Luke 12:32, Matthew 6:31-32,
I Peter 5:7, Psalm 40:4, Psalm 125:1, Hebrews 11:1, James 1:5-6, Colossians 2:6-7, I Corinthians 16:13

(Pick one of the verses above that fits your trial, and when you think about your trial, just keep repeating the verse. You will soon see how God takes care of your trial).

Lesson #19

Take A Moment To Review Ten Ways To Understand God's Response:

You must know that God is in control of the timing and intensity of your trials (read Romans 11:33).

You must realize that God has a specific purpose for each trial in your life (read Psalm 55:22).

You must understand that each trial is designed to meet a specific need that God sees in your life (read Isaiah 12:3-4).

You must accept that each trial is going to result in good if you respond in faith (read Psalm 10:3-7).

You must discover that each trial can strengthen your faith by realizing that you can depend on the Lord for all of your needs (read I Peter 5:6-7).

You must rejoice in the fact that each trial is an opportunity for God to demonstrate His power to sustain you under tremendous pressure (read James 1:2).

You must submit yourself to the development of Christ-like character that results from your trials (read Philippians 2:14).

You must take advantage of your trial's usefulness in measuring your spiritual growth. For example, you may realize that you are capable of handling a powerful hardship that would have crippled you only a year or two ago. This is true because your continuing trials have taught you that God will indeed empower you to prevail (read Ephesians 4:22-23).

You must be convinced that God will walk you through every step of each trial (read Proverbs 3:5-6).

You must have faith that by His grace and the enabling power of the Holy Spirit, you will not only survive, but you will also conquer over each trial (read Hebrews 10:17).

If you are a child of God, you have the means by which to stand firm in the face of any trial.

Hide Proverbs 3:5-6 In Your Heart:

Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.

In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.

We cannot begin to understand God's ability to “Forgive And Forget.” It seems impossible that an omniscient God could erase our transgressions from His mind; yet, the Bible tells us that when we confess our sins to God, we will receive forgiveness — no matter how great or small our offenses may be.

For I (God) will be _____ to their unrighteousness, and their _____ and their iniquities (lawless deeds) will I _____ no _____ (Hebrews 8:12).

Let all bitterness, and _____, and _____, and clamour, and _____ speaking, be _____ from _____, with all malice: and be you kind one to another, tenderhearted, _____ one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath _____ (Ephesians 4:31-32).

And when you stand praying, _____, if you have ought against _____: that your Father also which is in Heaven may forgive _____ your trespasses. But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in Heaven _____ trespasses (Mark 11:25-26).

For if you forgive _____ their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also _____ (Matthew 6:14).

Judge not, and _____ shall not be _____: condemn not, and you shall not be condemned: _____, and you shall be _____ (Luke 6:37).

If we _____ our sins, He is _____ and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from _____ (I John 1:9).

For there is _____ God, and _____ mediator between God and men, the man _____ (I Timothy 2:5).

I write unto you, little children, because your sins are _____ for His name's sake (I John 2:12).

Has any one ever mocked you, or spit in your face, or beat you? Now, take time to read Luke chapter 23.

What did Jesus say to the men who killed Him? (Luke 23:34). _____

Do you have someone you need to forgive? Can you say that you will now forgive that person who came to your mind? _____ Yes _____ No.

Tell that person that you forgive him or her, if you are able to do so. Tell God you forgive him or her, and then forget it.

For there are three that bear record (witness) in Heaven, the _____, the _____, (Jesus) and the _____; and these three are one (I John 5:7).

In the above verse, the name used for Jesus is “the Word.” Read John 1:1-2; it tells us that the Word was with God, and the Word was God; once again, this is referring to Jesus.

For _____ so loved the world, that He gave _____ _____, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have _____ _____ (John 3:16).

The above verse tells us that there is a Father (God) and there is a Son (Jesus).

Jesus said I will pray the Father, and He shall give you another _____, that He may abide with you _____, even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth Him not, neither knoweth Him: but you know Him: for He dwelleth with you, and shall be _____ (John 14:16-17).

The verse above shows us the third person in the Godhead, the Holy Spirit.

Likewise the Spirit also helpeth _____ infirmities: (weaknesses) for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. And He that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because He maketh intercession for the saints (Christians) according to the _____ (Romans 8:26-27).

This verse shows us that the Holy Spirit lives in us and works for us.

Where is Jesus today? The Bible says:

As A Christian You Need To Be Baptized.

Baptism is an outward sign that you are God's child. Just as Jesus was buried and raised from the dead, baptism is a sign that in going under the water you are buried, but you are also raised up out of the water, as Jesus was raised from the grave. Being baptized will not save you; you only are baptized to show people you are now saved and want to obey God—that you are now dead to sin and the world and Satan, and are a new creation in Christ.

Go you therefore, and teach all _____, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Teaching them to _____ whatsoever I (Jesus) have _____: and, lo I am with you always, even unto the end _____ (Matthew 28:19-20).

Know you not, that so many of us were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into His death? Therefore we are _____ with Him (Jesus) by baptism into death (dying to the old man): that like as _____ was raised up from the _____ by the _____ of the _____, even so we also should walk in _____ of _____ (putting on the new man) (Romans 6:3-4).

Buried with Him in _____, wherein also ye are _____ with _____ through the _____ of the operation of God, who hath raised Him (Jesus) from the dead. And you, being dead in your sins and the circumcision (not Jewish) of your flesh, hath He _____ (made alive) together with Him, having _____ all trespasses (sins) (Colossians 2:12-13).

Jesus as an example to us:

Then, cometh Jesus from Galilee to Jordan unto John, to be _____ of him. But John forbid Him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me? And Jesus answering said unto him, _____ (allow) it to be now: for thus it becometh (is fitting) for us to fulfill all righteousness. Then he suffered him. And Jesus, when He was _____, went up straightway out of the _____: and, lo, the Heavens were opened unto Him, and He saw the _____ descending like a dove, and lighting upon Him: And lo a voice from Heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I (God) am well _____ (Matthew 3:13-17).

Then Peter said unto them what? _____ (Acts 2:38).

Today's Bible reading is Psalm chapter 6.
