We are not to trust in prayer, but in the God to whom we pray. How important is prayer to you? How is your prayer life?

Do you trust God enough to believe that He cares and will answer your prayers if you pray according to His will?

Do you trust and love God enough to keep trusting Him even when it seems that He is not answering your prayers in the way you wanted or expected?

Do you pray specifically and honestly? Do you tell God what you are thinking and feeling—even if it might not be how you know you should be thinking and feeling? (Remember, He already knows, so it is good to be completely open and honest with Him.)

Elijah was a man just like us, who trusted in a great God (see James 5:17-18). We, too, can trust in our great God just as much. Will you trust in the God of the Bible? Do you know that He loves you and cares for you? Do you know that He sent His Son, Jesus, to die for you, since we were condemned sinners with no hope without Him? What are your thoughts about these things?

What are some of your struggles and difficulties in your prayer life?

People of many religions pray, but most do not really know God. Many simply repeat memorized prayers day after day. Our prayers should come from our hearts. How should our prayers be different than the prayers of those who do not know Him or who are merely religious?

It is amazing that the great Creator, God, wants to fellowship with us! How is your relationship with Him? How can it improve? What are you doing about it? Have you talked with God about it?

Do you pray for your unsaved family members and friends and neighbors that they would one day soon be born again? Do you tell your unsaved family members and friends and neighbors about the love of God and warn them of the consequences of dying without Jesus?

Do you have any comments or questions? Are there any ways in which we can pray for you or help in any way?

Do you have a family member or friend who would like to sign up for this Bible course? If so, please fill out the form below and we will send him/her the first lesson in this course.
