Bennie Hostetler Earns his CDL

After much hard work and testing, Bennie Hostetler has received the good news that he has completed training and has earned his CDL! He received his certificate on November 29, 2013.

A CDL (Commercial Driver's License) authorizes an individual to operate commercial motor vehicles and buses over 26,000 pounds gross vehicle weight, and qualifies him to operate freight-hauling trucks. Congratulations, Bennie!

New Bible Study Begins in January

To study the life of Christ is to behold God in human flesh. In the Gospels we meet the "real" Jesus. His life confronts us forcing man to make a decision whether to follow Him or not. And in Christ we learn of God's pattern and provision for our Christian experience.

So join us beginning January 11th at 8:30am, and every second and fourth Saturday's of the month thereafter for a Study on the Life of Christ. For the month of January we will meet at the home of Dee and Arlen Yoder. Then in February it will switch to the home of Chris and Wayne Vallowe. If you have any questions you can reach Arlen at (419) 631-7872 or Wayne at (440) 371-4531.

"A Christian is nothing but a sinful man who has put himself to school for Christ for the honest purpose of becoming better."

Deer Season 2013!

To the left, is John Keim and his son Joey. And to the right is William Keim and his son, Malachi. Way to go, Dads and sons!

To the right Samuel Girod shows one of the deer he got this year!

Annual MAP Volunteer Celebration

The annual appreciation dinner for Mission to Amish People volunteers was held on December 6th. The many volunteers enjoyed Sam Kline's special barbecue ribs with all the fixings. Guests were also treated to a concert after dinner by The Singing Weavers. It was a great night of fellowship and fun.!

OOPS!

Dee Goofed!

My apologies to Barbara Gingerich and her fiancé Eric Beers. I wrongly stated that they plan to be married on June 13, 2014, but the date is for the following year: 2015!

Cross Point Event: Journey to Bethlehem

In spite of polar temperatures, the Cross Point group took an early December Journey to Bethlehem. The event was held in Walnut Creek, Holmes County, Ohio. Visits to Walnut Creek shops and then The Farm, gave the group a taste of scenes from the nativity story. The inn with no room, a choir of angels, shepherds in the field, the camp of King Herod, the camp of the Three Wise Men, and finally the barn filled with angels and animals told the story of Jesus' birth. Those attending the event were Joseph Brown, Lovina Kuhns, Bennie Hostetler, Marvin Schlabach, Barbara Gingerich, Eric Beers, Wayne and Chris Vallowe, and Arlen and Dee Yoder. After the wagon tour, the group was glad to warm up and have a bite to eat at East of Chicago Pizza in Berlin, Oh. What a great way to celebrate the birth of the Savior!

A Note from Dee

By the time you read this, Christmas 2013 will be a memory. My prayer for all of us in the coming year of 2014 is that God's blessings will be with us; and may we grow in His ways, His truth, and His grace.

Happy New Year!

"Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight, O Lord, my strength, and my redeemer."

Psalm 19:14
